

[illegible]

A schematic diagram of a 50-story building. The building is represented by a large rectangle divided into a grid of columns. The central portion of the building is shaded gray, representing the core. The perimeter columns are white. The text '~ 50 ST' is written below the central core area. To the left of the building, there are two vertical arrows pointing upwards, indicating the building's height or a specific structural feature.
